Sir,-

In forwarding herewith, for the orders of Government, copies of the marginally noted correspondence between this office and the Inspector General of Police in Mysore, on the subject of the appointment of an Ambulance Lecturer for the Head Quarter Police Training School, Bangalore, I have the honor to state as follows-

Letter No. 4723 dated 9-5-1914 from the Senior Surgeon.
No. 747/Mis.103 dated 17-8-14 from the Inspector General of Police in Mysore.

2. The earliest available Government Order on the subject is No. 9999-10,000/J.852 dated 23rd Demember 1893, requesting the Senior Surgeon and Sanitary Commissioner to make suitable arrangements for the delivery of Ambulance lectures at the Head Quarter Police Training School. Subsequently, different officers of the Medical Department have, on the requisition of the Inspector General of Police, been deputed for the work as noted below:-

3. On the transfer of Mr. G.S. David from Bangalore, the place of Ambulance Lecturer having fallen vacant, Mr. J. V. Mascarenhas, who was in charge of the Imperial Service Regimental Hospital, applied for the same. His application having been supported by the Inspector General of Police, he was appointed Lecturer with effect from September 1910 and the appointment was approved by Government in their Order No.2201-3 Med. 59-10-2, dated 2nd September 1910. Mr. Mascarenhas continued as Lecturer till his transfer to Kolar Gold Fields, as Acting Health Officer in October 1913, the duties being performed during his absences on leave or on other duty, by officers who were from time to time posted to act for him.

4. It thus came to be understood that the Medical Officer in charge of the Regimental Hospital, was, by virtue of his office, also the Ambulance Lecturer at the Police Training School

5 Accordingly, Assistant Surgeon Mr. S. Narayan Rao who was appointed to the charge of the Imperial Service Lancers Hospital, appears to have taken up the Lecturership on and from the 5th December 1913. The fact came to my knowledge only in April 1914, when the Inspector General of Police asked for a copy of the order appointing Mr. Narayan Rao as Lecturer. On being informed that no such order had been issued, the Inspector General of Police requested me in his letter No.4596 dated 4th May 1914, to obtain the formal sanction of Government to the appointment.

6. The subsequent correspondence on the subject is contained in the enclosures to this letter. I am not prepared to accept the statement of the Inspector General of Police that the system suggested by me, was ever found unsatisfactory. The fact that the former Inspector Generals of Police requested the re-appointment of Assistant Surgeons working in the Victoria Hospital as Ambulance Lecturers from time to time, is sufficient to disprove the statement of the present head of the Department.

7. It was only in supporting the application of Mr. Mascarenhas

Mr. Mascarenhas for the post, that the then Inspector General of Police, in his letter No. 660 dated 9th August 1910, brought to the notice of this office for the first time that the deputation for the school work of "an officer in charge of the District Medical and Sanitary duties" requiring frequent touring, was not a convenient arrangement. But this remark had no reference whatever to the kind of officers suggested by me, viz: Assistant Surgeons undergoing post-graduate course in the Victoria Hospital.

8. The Regimental Hospital is situated at an inconvenient distance from the City and the Medical Officer in charge gets an allowance of Rs 50/- a month, probably because he is required to stay in the Lines and be available at all times to render medical aid to the members of the Regiment. The present incumbent, moreover, has to attend on Pradhana Siromany Mr. T. Ananda Rao, C.I.E., twice a day. It was for these reasons that I informed the Inspector General that the imposition of too many duties on the same officer was not advisable either in the interests of the officer himself or in those of the duties concerned. Just at present I understand that the Imperial Service Regiment is ordered to be ready for service abroad and the Medical Officer will have to accompany the Force.

9. There is nothing special in the teaching of ambulance and First Aid in the Police School, which cannot be done by an Assistant Surgeon of average abilities. Even for the medical duties of the Regimental Hospital, it is the Civil Medical Department that has been supplying officers, none of whom had any Military training and all of whom have, so far as this Department is aware, done equally well.

10. I am therefore of opinion that the Assistant Surgeon undergoing post-graduate course in the Victoria Hospital may with advantage and without the least inconvenience, be appointed as Ambulance Lecturer for the Police Training School the two institutions being situated very close to each other

11. Orders are solicited on two points, viz,- (1) sanction to the disbursement of the allowance due to Mr. S. Narayana Rao from the 5th December 1913, the date from which he is reported to have taken up the work in the Police School, and (2) whether the Medical Officer in charge of the Imperial Service Lancers Hospital or the Assistant Surgeon undergoing postpgraduate course in the Victoria Hospital should, in future, be appointed for the Lecturership

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Senior Surgeon.

Letter No . 4723 dated 9-5-1914 from the Senior Surgeon, Mysore Government, to the Inspector General of Police in Mysore.

(10 Encl to Pol 67-14--1

With reference to your letter No. 4596 dated 2/4th May 1914, I have the honor to state that it does not contain any answer to my enquiry, whether Assistant Surgeon Mr. S. Narayana Rao is doing the work of Ambulance Lecturer in the Police Training School. If he is, the date from which he has been doing the work may also be kindly intimated

2. In this connection, I may state that Mr. Narayana Rao has, in addition to the medical charge of the Imperial Service Lancers which is not a light one, to attend on the late Dewan Pradhana Siromani Mr. T. Ananda Rao, C.I.E., To add on the work of Lecturer to the same officer may not be the best arrangement, either in the interests of the officer himself, or those of the School.

3. Under these circumstances, I request the favour of your opinion, whether it will not be more convenient to revert to the old practice, namely, deputing the Assistant Surgeon that may be undergoing post graduate course in the Victoria Hospital, Bangalore, to give lectures in ambulance at the Police Training School .

Letter No. 747/Mis. 103 dated 17th August 1914 from the Inspector General of Police in Mysore, to the Senior Surgeon, Mysore Govt.,

With reference to your letter No. 4723 dated 9-5-14 enquiring whether Mr. S. Narayan Rao is doing the work of Ambulance Lecturer in the Police Training School, I have the honor to state that he has been doing it from 5th December 13.

With regard to the third paragraph of your letter requesting to be informed whether it will not be more convenient to get it done by one of the Assistant Surgeons undergoing post-graduate course in the Victoria Hospital, I beg to state that the system was tried and found to be thoroughly unsatisfactory, and so the present practice has been resorted to

of getting the ambulance lectures delivered by the Medical Officer in charge of the Imperial Service Lancers, who by nature of the duties attached to his office was considered to be the proper person to do so in the Police Training School. This practice has been working very well, and I accordingly request that it may be continued.
